Headline:
Rather cloudy with a little rain.

Today:
A rather cloudy day with patchy, mainly light rain. However there will be some brighter spells especially across eastern Argyll, Lanarkshire and to the east of Glasgow. Mild, occasionally fresh westerly winds. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
A mild but mostly cloudy night, perhaps some clearer spells in east, and further patchy light rain and drizzle. Freshening south-westerly winds becoming strong at times in coastal parts. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Thursday:
A generally cloudy morning with outbreaks of rain, these becoming more persistent and occasionally heavy in the early afternoon. Becoming brighter but cooler later as winds turn more northerly. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Mainly dry with sunny spells Friday and Saturday morning with early frosts. More unsettled, but milder again, through the rest of the weekend with outbreaks of rain.
